

Job Title:	SET CAMHS Wellbeing Coach
Reports to (job title):	SET CAMHS Emotional Wellbeing Practitioner
Line Manager to:	N/A

Job purpose

The new SET CAMHS service is underpinned by the Thrive Framework.

SET CAMHS will offer timely and flexible support for children, young people and their families with professionals thinking holistically about the needs of the child or young person rather than focusing on a diagnosis. Our aim is to build resilience in Children, young people, their families/carers, and professionals and to be informed about support available, the choices they have, empowering them to understand what they can do to help themselves, and how to support future mental health needs.

The post holder will work as part of a multidisciplinary team, they will be responsible for providing targeted outcomes-focused help to address specific emotional health issues.

The Wellbeing coach will use a solution focused methodology to provide a personalised coaching programme of advice and support incorporating social prescribing with a specific focus on the 5 Ways to Wellbeing;

1. Connecting with other people
2. Being physically active
3. Learning new skills
4. Giving to others
5. Paying attention to the present moment (mindfulness)

The Wellbeing coach will work across the local system with, and for, the family and the children and young people, to prevent escalation of need.

The role includes:

- Employing a solution focused coaching methodology to support children, young people and their families to develop positive coping strategies
- Using social prescribing to help enable children and young people to adopt the 5-ways to wellbeing as a mechanism to both manage and improve their own wellbeing / personal resilience
- Undertake home visits to children and young and participate in the assessment of care needs and implement a planned programme of care

- Deliver therapeutic Evidence Based interventions to support young people to develop their own solutions, led by their needs, wants and aspirations
- To actively participate in the gathering of service user, family/carers and other stakeholder's feedback
- Follow-up parents / children / young people who default appointments

Key responsibilities

The post holder will support the delivery of an effective service through the provision of support in the areas described;

- To hold a defined caseload of service users which is supervised and monitored by a Getting Help Practitioner
- Working individually with service users to design and develop individualised, collaborative wellbeing plans to address their individual needs, under the supervision of the Getting help practitioner
- Empower Service Users to work through their Wellbeing plan, using structured interventions and motivational communication methods
- Review service user progression and adjust Wellbeing Plans in conjunction with the service user as required to meet their targets and goals
- Engage and work with local organisations and ECFWS teams to ensure that services required by Users are in place and effective
- Undertake and contribute to clinical risk assessment and management for self, service user/carer and other team members, ensuring all appropriate procedures are adhered to
- Facilitate links with specialist services as required
- To attend MDT and other clinical meetings as needed
- To support young people with the process of transition into adult services
- Work in close partnership with the Partnership Liaison Officers to ensure that local organisation relationships are developed and maintained
- To engage in practice development and continuous improvement opportunities

Our values are our moral compass and core to our DNA. They underpin the way we deliver our services and treat those who use our services.

To many organisations values are just words which don't translate into reality of the day to day but our values flow through everything that we do, they define who we are, what we stand for and set the expectations of our colleagues, communities, customers and partners. They have been defined by our colleagues and have been integral to our journey so far and will be integral to our future as well.

We have three values which help us stand out from the crowd, not just because there's only three, but because they are unique to who we are. We care, we think, and we do.

Care	Think	Do
A. Inspire	D. Challenge	G. Accountability
B. Understand	E. Improve	H. Involve
C. Communicate	F. Learn	I. Resilience
