- To demonstrate clinical effectiveness by the use of evidence-based practice and outcome measures including TOMS.
- To maintain and provide full, accurate and comprehensive case record notes in line with RCSLT professional standards and organisational policies and to provide timely and accurate statistical data
- To react appropriately to disclosure of information triggering child protection / vulnerable adult procedures, and also to share information with others about a child's communication needs which may involve child safeguarding issues
- To participate in the development and delivery of training (formal and informal) alone and with others for carers and professionals
- To recognise professional boundaries and be accountable for own professional actions, seeking advice as appropriate
- To participate in student placements as appropriate
- After two years post registration, to provide expert advice to Wiltshire Council in interpreting other professional reports for Tribunal
- To demonstrate the ability to reflect on practice with /peers/clinical supervisor and identify own strengths and development needs
- To contribute to local and national audit and quality measures as part of the process of clinical governance
- To contribute to clinical teams both multidisciplinary and uni-disciplinary by discussing own and others input around clients needs, ensuring a well coordinated care plan
- To participate in own Individual Performance Review and appraisal to identify personal/professional development ensuring that the objectives set reflect the organisation's plans including specific objectives relating to the clinical areas of development
- To develop a working knowledge of relevant procedures including: Safeguarding Children, SEND procedures, and other legal frameworks
- To foster an environment in which communication in an open, honest and direct manner is encouraged
- To recognise potential breakdown and conflict when it occurs and seek advice and support to resolve
- To deal with initial complaints sensitively, avoiding escalation where possible
- To form productive relationships with others who may be under stress and/or have challenging communication difficulties
- To have due regard for own personal safety and that of children/carers, in particular to have regard to moving and handling regulations, restraining policies and ensure the safe positioning of self and others

- To demonstrate the ability to manage children and young people in the workplace with challenging behaviours including the application of appropriate management strategies
- To identify, prioritise and manage unpredictable clinical or non-clinical situations (e.g. dealing with people with challenging behaviour, serious communication impairments, mental health issues, unwelcome diagnoses / recommendations) to achieve an appropriate and safe outcome
- To work alone ensuring appropriate risk management and lone worker policies are observed
- To be flexible to the demands of the environment including unpredictable work patterns, deadlines, frequent interruptions, cramped and noisy facilities in settings
- To work with a wide range of professionals in a variety of multidisciplinary teams across agencies

Our values

Our values are our moral compass and core to our DNA. They underpin the way we deliver our services and treat those who use our services.

To many organisations values are just words which don't translate into reality of the day to day but our values flow through everything that we do, they define who we are, what we stand for and set the expectations of our colleagues, communities, customers and partners. They have been defined by our colleagues and have been integral to our journey so far and will be integral to our future as well.

We have three values which help us stand out from the crowd, not just because there's only three, but because they are unique to who we are. We care, we think, and we do.
